

The GRE® General Test at Home

The most complete at home admissions test

	GRE® General Test at Home*	GMAT® Online†
Content comparability to the standard offering	The test is identical in content, format and on-screen experience compared to the usual testing experience.	Analytical Writing is omitted.
Global availability	It is globally available everywhere the computer-delivered GRE® General Test is normally offered, except in Mainland China and Iran. Individuals from 130+ countries and territories are already registered.	It is available globally, except in Mainland China, Cuba, Iran, North Korea and Sudan.
Computer systems	Windows® 10, 8 or 7/or Mac® OS 10.5 and above	Windows 10 or 8.1/or Mac OS 10.13 and above
Accommodations	Extended time, extra breaks, screen magnification, selectable colors and many others are available.	Extended time and an extended break are available.
Retesting	Yes, up to five times in any 12-month rolling period.	Yes, one time.
Reschedule fee	$50	$25
Unofficial score preview	Yes, test takers can see their unofficial scores upon completion of the test.	No
Official scores	10–15 days after test completion	7 business days after test completion
Proctoring	ProctorU®	Pearson VUE®
Security	Real-time human proctoring and artificial technologies	Real-time human proctoring and artificial technologies
Cost	$205 including free score reports	$250 including free score reports

* Visit www.ets.org/gre/at-home (test takers) and www.ets.org/gre/cv-update (institutions) for more information.

† Source for GMAT information: www.mba.com/exams/gmat-online (accessed September 24, 2020)

