

Proverbs Worksheet

Some of my friends and I decided to volunteer at a nursing home once a month. We talked into the home to ----- ourselves to the staff, who would then----- what activities we would be helping with. We would be able to ----- the residents as they took a nice ----- around the outside of the building. They might want to talk, or stay----- . We could listen to their stories and -----, even if we don't agree with their ----- . We could help clean ----- off of the water spouts. There was so much to do! I knew we could ----- a lot while we were there. I decided to start outside since the weather was beautiful. I I was skipping along with the building when I accidentally hit my ----- on one of the water spouts I was going to clean off. Luckily it didn't hurt or dampen my helping spirit!
