Topic 1

Everybody owns a cellphone, but not everyone has the right manners to talk on the phone. Write a speech of not more than 250 words educating the people of your colony about cellphone etiquettes.

Good morning everybody, I, Aneesh Gupta, stand before you with an important message to convey on an important topic which is cell phone etiquettes. Our world has been turned upside down by the invention of cell phones. They have altered not just how we communicate with one another, but also how we engage with the rest of the world. Everything that we use has a code of conduct attached to it - if you want to use it the right way. Whether you are driving a car or walking on the road, there are specific rules and regulations that you have to follow for yourself and as a duty to others. Similarly, the cellphone comes with a handy set of cellphone etiquettes, which hardly anyone wants to follow. The irony of the whole situation is that the number of people using the cellphone without etiquettes is much higher than the number of people using it in the right manner! We must lock our phones and keep them down while we are in front of someone listening to them or talking to them. It's impolite to look at the phone from time to time while discussing with someone. This is the very first etiquette we must understand. There are certain places where it is a cause of confusion and noise pollution. For example, in hospitals, it is best advised to keep your phone on silent or vibrate mode, and if you have to receive a call, you must talk in a low tone, making sure that you do not disturb patients around you. The same applies in the office where you work. People forget the etiquette that they must follow while talking on the phone and do so very loudly. This way, you may make the person on the other side and the people around you uncomfortable. It would be helpful for you if you also take care of not talking on the phone while driving as it can distract you and lead to an accident where you may hurt yourself or others. Therefore, it is best to use this commodity as an asset and not as a miscreant. We should limit our mobile phone usage and develop cell phone etiquette. I hope that my remarks will assist you in understanding the importance of etiquette and learning it. Thank you!

Write a speech of not more than 200 words on the importance of yoga.

Good morning to the respected principal, teachers and my dear friends. My name is Ajar Rab, and I stand before you today to tell you not one but many benefits of yoga. With the changing times, the level of stress in our lives increases, becoming one of the major causes of several health risks and problems. Every other person is suffering from hypertension, diabetes and heart-related problems. It is time to step back and pause. There is a straightforward solution to all of these problems - Yoga. Yes, you heard it right. Yoga is a lovely physical, mental, and spiritual exercise popular in India. It has to do with maintaining a healthy body and mind. It's a lovely form of exercise that connects the spirit to nature while also keeping you healthy and active. Yoga comes with many benefits and can relax both mind and body to a completely different level. The meaning of yoga is to unite with one's inner self. It truly is a union of the body, mind and soul. The postures and breathing techniques taught in yoga help us connect with our inner being and understand what our body is trying to tell us - to relax and let go. Work and other pressures lead us to pent up a lot of tension and stress in our muscles and body; yoga helps release that tension. Keeping in mind the popularity and benefits of Yoga, the whole world celebrates "International Yoga Day" on the 21st of June every year. Moreover, exercise may help us develop our bodies while also sharpening our minds and calming our emotions. We should not overlook it and try to inculcate it in our daily schedule. Thank you!

Topic 3

The media holds society like never before. Write a short speech of 150 words on the role of media in influencing the public for your school assembly.

Good morning respected principal, teachers and my dear friends. I, Tazmeen Amna, have come before you today to share my thoughts on the media's role in influencing the public. We cannot deny the role media plays in connecting the entire world and keeping us updated about the world's events. This is where the media's role becomes important because it has a big responsibility on its shoulders. Since it has a massive outreach, media companies, be it newspapers, TV channels or radio, must be careful about what they are presenting to the public and it should not be biased. The way they give the news is how most people will perceive it. Therefore, while media is necessary, it is also required to fulfil its responsibility truly. Thank you!
