

Republic Day Anchoring Script in English for Students

[Welcoming Everyone]

Anchor 1: Good morning, respected Principal Ma'am/Sir, honourable guests, esteemed teachers, and my dear fellow students. It's an absolute privilege to welcome you all to this joyous occasion. I am [Student Name] from Class [Class].

Anchor 2: And I am _____[Student Name] from class _____ [Class]. Together, we wish you all a very happy Republic Day.

Anchor 1: Today, we have gathered here to celebrate the 76th Republic Day of India. This day marks the adoption of our Constitution, which came into effect on January 26, 1950, making us a sovereign, secular, and democratic republic.

[Prayer]

Anchor 2: Let us begin this auspicious day by seeking the blessings of the Almighty to guide us toward unity, prosperity, and peace. I invite the students from Class ____ [Class Name] to lead us in prayer. Everyone, please rise.

(Prayer Song is conducted.)

Anchor 2: Thank you to the students for that beautiful prayer that filled us with positivity and gratitude.

[Principal's Speech]

Anchor 1: Now, I would like to request our respected Principal Ma'am/Sir to address the gathering with their inspiring words.

(Principal's speech ends)

Anchor 1: Thank you Ma'am/Sir for those encouraging words and reminding us of our responsibilities as citizens of this great nation.

[Flag Hoisting Ceremony]

Anchor 2: A Republic Day celebration would be incomplete without honouring our beloved Tricolor. It's now time for the moment we've all been eagerly waiting for – the flag-hoisting ceremony.

Anchor 2: I now request our esteemed Chief Guest, [Chief Guest's Name], to kindly come forward to unfurl the national flag. I request everyone to rise for the flag-hoisting ceremony and remain standing for the National Anthem.

(Flag Hoisting and National Anthem ends)

Anchor 2: Thank you, sir/mam. Everyone, please take your seats as we continue with our program.

[Student Speech]

Anchor 1: Now, to understand the significance of this day, I invite [Student's Name] from [Class] to deliver a speech on Republic Day. Please welcome him/her with a round of applause.

(Student speech ends)

Anchor 1: That was indeed an inspiring speech! Thank you, [Student's Name], for reminding us of the values that make our Constitution so special.

[Cultural Performances]

Anchor 2: No celebration is complete without lively performances, and today, we have something special. Up next, we have a patriotic dance by the talented students of [Class]. Please give them a big round of applause!

(Cultural performances)

Anchor 2: What an electrifying performance! The energy and passion of our performers truly brought the spirit of patriotism alive.

[Patriotic Song]

Anchor 1: I am delighted to share that students of class [class name] have prepared a soulful song. Please welcome them with a warm round of applause!

(Group song performance ends)

Anchor 1: That was truly inspiring! Thank you for the heartfelt rendition that reminded us of our love for our country.

[Quiz on Republic Day]

Anchor 2: Now, let's test our knowledge of India's history with a fun and interactive quiz! I would like to call [Student Name] from Class [Class Name] to come forward and start the quiz.

Anchor 1: Everyone, please be seated, and raise your hand if you know the answer!

(quiz ends)

Anchor 2: As we near the conclusion of today's program, let us take a moment to thank all those who made this celebration possible.

Anchor 1: A big thank you to our Principal Ma'am/Sir, teachers, and participants who contributed their time and effort. And, of course, a heartfelt thanks to all of you, our wonderful audience, for your enthusiasm and support.

Anchor 2: Let us all remember the sacrifices of the brave souls who built this nation and pledge to uphold the values of our Constitution.

Anchor 1: Wishing you all a very happy Republic Day!

Both Anchors: Thank you, everyone! Jai Hind!
